

Still Dancing... Group

More Than a Tea Party*

Still Life: Tea Set

Jean-Etienne Liotard, 1781-1783

*a special acknowledgment to Jane Evershed

This monthly group is for women who are committed to deepening and further integrating body and soul explorations begun in prior workshops, groups, and individual process work. Through Authentic Movement, dance, poetry, images, and dreams, we will attune to the body, explore links between psyche and soma, and soul. The focus of the group will foster The Feminine in the Self as well as others. All participants must commit to the entire series. Once formed, the group will close.
